Spiritually

"Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

"Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me; but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened round his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matt. 18:3-6)

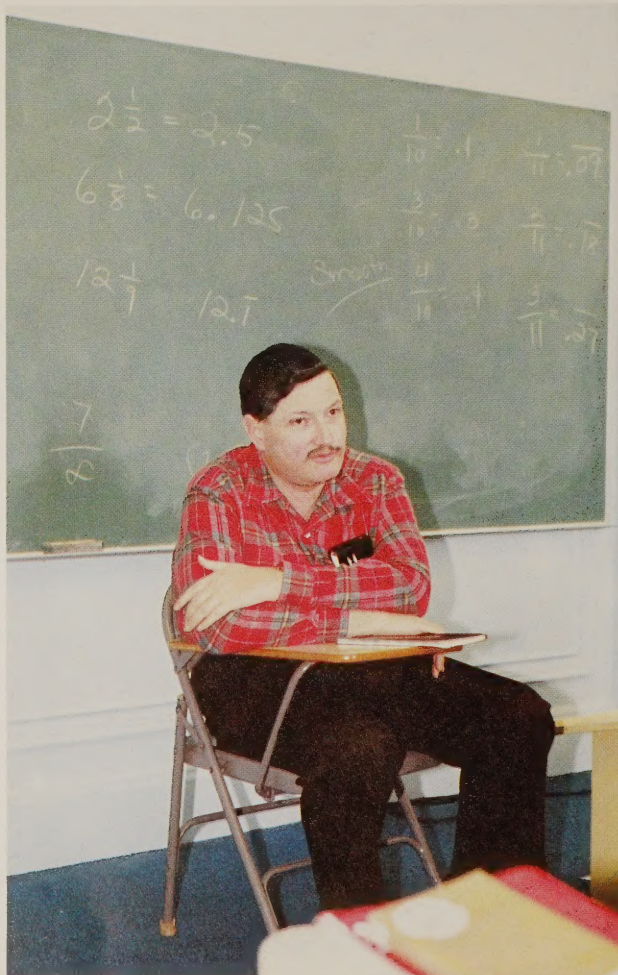

"Therefore, like newborn babes, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up to salvation; for you have tested the kindness of the Lord." (I Pet. 2:2-3)

Gregory Anderson

Dedication:

We, the class of 1982, would like to dedicate this book to Mr. Gregory Anderson. He's every NCJC student's favorite, and only, history teacher. During our stay at Northeastern, we all grew to love and admire Mr. Anderson.

Mr. Anderson first came to Northeastern in 1966. Since then he has given a great deal of himself toward the growth and development of NCJC. A single word or phrase cannot encompass all that he means to us. Mr. Anderson is warm, friendly, humorous, and out-of-the-ordinary. He is a Christian, a history teacher, friend, story-teller, Chairman of the Academic Affairs Committee, 'sit-down' comedian, and the best dieter we've ever seen.

Mr. Anderson got us through our required history classes with a minimum of pain. A freshman was heard to say, "History was never like this in high school." Mr. 'A' taught us American and Ancient History, Western Civilization, Old and New Testament, and American Studies. The typical history 'drivel' was written down and memorized, but along with it we heard all the gory, descriptive details (always much easier to remember than the test questions). He taught us about the Vikings and Speedy Gonzalez, a close relative of the Aztecs. We also received lessons in foreign language, as Mr. 'A' would occasionally lecture in a variety of foreign tongues, much to our dismay.

Mr. Anderson was there if a student ever needed help or just wanted to talk. His office door was always open; and promptly closed three seconds later. Mr. 'A' taught us a multitude of things; about history, about Christianity, and about life. He taught us how to eat, where to eat, what to eat, and where to go. But, most of all, he taught us something that is sometimes the hardest but most important thing to learn. Mr. Anderson taught us how to laugh; how to laugh at ourselves and to laugh with each other.

Growing

If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Mr. Kemplin and Maureen Campbell

Miss B and Sandra McCoy

Emotionally

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. (John 13:14-15, 34-35; 15:12-13)

Growing

Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

Administration

The 1981-82 school year at NCJC has been a great one. As always, it is you, the students, who made it a successful year. I know of no place where students are so accepted and loved as on our campus. Every student finds his own special place in the hearts of other students, the faculty, administrators, and staff. Without this trusting relationship, Northeastern could not be such a unique place.

We have been on your side all this year in wishing you the best. We will always be pulling for you because we want all our students to be real leaders. We want you to make a difference for good in this world.

When our former students return to Northeastern, they often say proudly, "This is our college, and in all our years since we left here, we have never found a place like Northeastern." We hope this is the way you feel right now and we hope this feeling will grow over the years.

To our graduates, "Goodbye, I will miss you. God bless you and may you always live for Christ." To our returning Class of 1982-83, "It will be great to be with you again and may we be enriched in every good way by God's blessings in our coming year together."

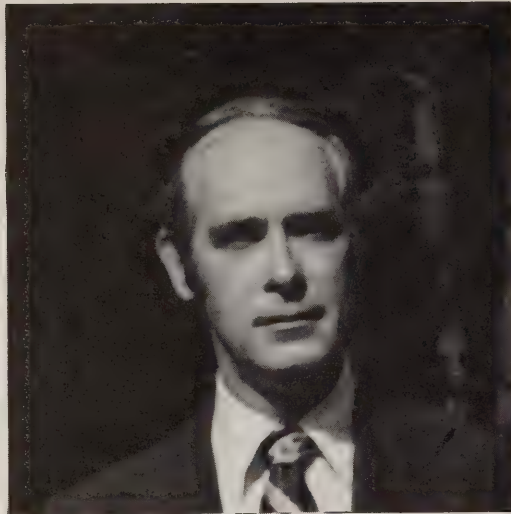

May the love of Christ and the love of one another always keep us together.

Northeastern brings different things to different students. Some students find interest in the Third Year Bible Program offered by NCJC. Many students plan to go out and preach God's word to the Northeast. These students choose to further their Christian education here at Northeastern.

Studying?

Paperwork.

Atop of Boone Mountain all
covered with snow,
There is a small college which
few people know.
It houses 200 from different
backgrounds,
You can easily tell by just
looking around.
There's mold in the showers,
and soup in the drain,
and everybody agrees,
that curfew's a pain.
The food is synthetic,
imported and blan,
it looks like something
we scraped off the pan.

Boring.

Go Team.

The salt's on probation,
all because of you,
rehearsals are boring,
my room-mate is too.
The heat took a vacation,
the fire-drill sounds;
the girls are outside
rolling around on the ground.
This is the end,
the outcome is clear;
We don't have any luxuries,
but we all have grown near.

Freshmen

THE FRESHMEN CLASS proved this year that they are indeed a class of many talents, capabilities, and spirit. During the past school year, many freshmen were called upon to assume various roles of leadership. The end result was that both their peers and elders were pleasantly surprised with the imagination and authority used to handle their duties. Those class members returning next year will be asked to assume even greater responsibilities, with the confidence of the college and those who work with in it.

A word of prayer will help any game.

Don't mess with him - he looks determined!

The men's volleyball team really started to come together this year. Their record wasn't too great, but they did use some nice teamwork to make some good sets and win some games. Coach Jacoby really worked with the team; all the players put forth effort so that they looked good out there. They gave their opponents some good competition.

Is this a stick up?

Ladies' Volleyball

Coach Jacoby says that this year's ladies' team was relatively inexperienced, but you wouldn't guess it from their 12-5 record. Coach and the girls really worked hard to put together a team which played an excellent game of volleyball.

Softball

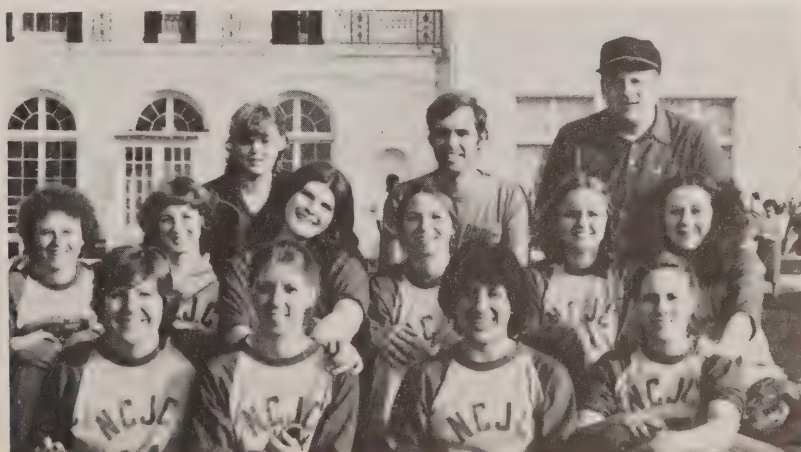

The '81-'82 softball team only won one game this Spring, but they really worked hard and showed some improvement. Coaches Jacoby and Schubmehl learned a lot right along with the girls, and they all had a lot of fun.

Bottom: Belinda Brown, Kerry Forsythe, Lydia Jiminez - captain, Mindy Smith, Middle: Sheila McCoy, Lori Sholl, Dawn Blaine, Karen Mason - captain, Jan LaChance, Tanya Fuchs. Top: Manager Trudy Houff, Coach Paul Jacoby, Assistant Coach Bob Schubmehl.

Belinda's ready for the pitch.

Basketball

"I dare you to cross this line!"

Taking it down.

The Men's Basketball team had an official record of 13-13 this year. They won the Eastern Christian Conference. This was Coach Lane's first year of coaching basketball and he did a fine job with the team. They all worked hard together. Four men off the team made the All-Stars: Francis Perry and Charles Armstead on the first team, and Levi Tucker and Elite Freeman on the second. Joel Brown kept the books, Mark Rollins was manager, and Kevin Van Why and Jaime Clemente were athletic trainers.

What is this strange new dance?

The Lady Knights had a lot of skilled players this year, and those with less experience learned a lot from Coach Kathy Page. The team really came together and put a lot of effort and ambition into every game in order to win the Eastern Christian Conference. Every girl got a lot of chances to play and they showed enthusiasm and good sportsmanship. Coach Page was helped out by Levi Tucker and the manager Sandy Fuchs.

"You've gotta be kidding!"

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS: The cheerleaders really did a great job of encouraging the crowds this year, and getting everyone enthusiastic and involved. L. to r.: Captain - Carol Mastrobattista, Shirley Munroe, Chris McKinney, Laurel Evans, Patti Jo Frahm, Rhonda Lowe, C.C. Rucker - co-captain.

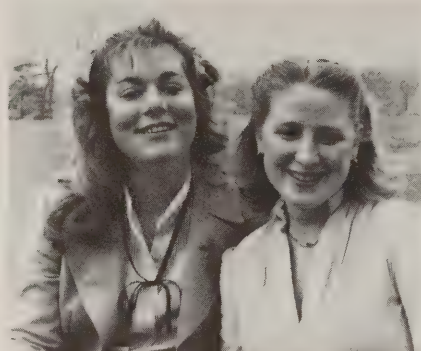

Soccer

"This trip is on me!"

No team would be complete without managers or statisticians. This year they were Ann O'Brien and Dawn Cowart. They were a great help to the team.

The soccer team for '81-'82 really looked good out on the field. They worked very hard under Coach Keller and his assistant Rick Carroll. They played a hard, fast game with a lot of effort. They showed some real talent and teamwork. Their record ended up at 2-8-1, but this doesn't reflect how hard they tried and the good competition they were for the other teams.

This year's soccer cheerleaders really added a lot to all of the games. Bottom to top: Captain - Carol Mastrobattista, Debbie Gullickson, Patti Jo Frahm, Lena Robetoy, Mindy Smith, Alison Mahoney. Pep squad: Robert Solomon, Gary Cox, Scott Boring. Not shown: Dana Mowrer, Ed Grant.

This is a good place for a stick up!

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY is committed to the belief that truth, having nothing to fear from examination, should be pursued relentlessly; that religious commitment, which is no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence; and that knowledge makes a claim, calling for a life of service.

Write for: An Introduction to Seaver College which describes the academically selective undergraduate college of Pepperdine University. Seaver College has a limited enrollment of 2200 students with 36 majors in Business Administration, Communications, Humanities/Fine Arts, Natural Science, Religion and Social Science.

Competitive spirit.
It's the American way!

Competition is a healthy means of fostering achievement and striving for a standard of excellence. That's why you'll find American Bank's support behind many athletic events and teams in the area.

Competition is also healthy in business.

It's that same competitive spirit that makes American Bank strive to give our customers the best we can.

So here's to competitive spirit. It's the American Bank advantage.

Take A Good Close Look At Harding University

Upon a first arrival at Harding University, visitors often are impressed with the basic beauty of the tree-studded campus.

But the most lasting impression of Harding comes from a close look at the individuals — a student body of more than 3,000 (representing 47 states and 26 foreign countries) — each with his own personality, his own background and his own needs.

Among the many challenges at Harding in addition to the college's spiritual emphasis is that of learning to blend personalities. There is opportunity for those of common interests to combine their skills, whether in writing for the student newspaper, competing athletically, performing musically or learning the give and take of having a roommate.

Basic in the quest is the aim for a quality education. Harding's advance to university status has sharpened the route, with a qualified and experienced faculty eager to aid the student in his pursuit. In addition to offering academic assistance, professors often participate in ball games, invite students to their homes, serve as club sponsors and otherwise become involved in and out of the classroom.

The overall friendliness, determination, enthusiasm and excitement are catching. Students routinely become involved — in campus activities and community service projects, as well as in their studies.

Take a good, close look at what Harding University has to offer. We think you'll like what you see.

Quality education
where people really count.

F-HC The Place To Be

F-HC, the Place to Become

F-HC can help you become the best you can be. A faculty of a hundred professionals will advise, counsel, teach, and encourage you in your academic pursuits.

F-HC, the Place to Believe

We believe that Christian faith demands commitment, knowledge, and a lifestyle consistent with that faith. Freed-Hardeman offers that challenge.

F-HC, the Place to Belong

You can belong at F-HC because we are what we say--a group of Christians living, learning, and growing together. If you want that kind of atmosphere, F-HC can belong to you too.
